

For The Beauty of the Earth
Pierpont / Gilpin

For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
over and around us lies.

For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
over and around us lies.

Heaven, to heaven with joy we raise
this our grateful song of praise.
Heaven, to heaven with joy we raise
this our grateful song of praise.

For the beauty of each hour,
of the day and of the night,
hill and vale and tree and flower,
sun and moon and stars of light,
sun and moon and stars of light.

Heaven, to heaven with joy we raise
this our grateful song of praise.
Heaven, to heaven with joy we raise
this our grateful song of praise
this our grateful song of praise.

Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

*Questions & Responses from the Heidelberg Catechism (#86, 91)

Leader: Since, then, we are redeemed from our misery by grace through Christ, without any merit of ours, why must we do good works?

People: Because Christ, having redeemed us by His blood, also renews us by His Holy Spirit after His own image, that with our whole life we show ourselves thankful to God for His blessing, and that He be glorified through us; then also, that we ourselves may be assured of our faith by the fruits thereof; and by our godly walk win also others to Christ.

*Worshippers, please stand if physically able.

Leader: What are good works?

People: Those only which proceed from true faith, and are done according to the law of God, unto His glory, and not such as rest on our own opinion or the commandments of men.
